Table of Contents for WEEK ONE

- 1. Homework-Week One
- 2. Lab Notes-Week One
- 3. Lecture Outline-Week One

For homework this week, read pages 17-64. Write a two page paper on your reactions to the author's point of view. All papers must be double-spaced and using 12pt type. Be sure to cite any other sources which you use for reference.

Learning Modules are a way of organizing content so that it is delivered in a linear, ordered way.

Because Learning Modules also contain a table of contents, they make the instructor's organizational scheme clearer.
